Collect for the 10th Sunday after Trinity

Let your merciful ears, O Lord,
be open to the prayers of your humble servants;
and that they may obtain their petitions
make them to ask such things as shall please you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sunday 11th August

9am St Michaels Morning Praise
10.30am St Nicholas Morning Praise
10.30am All Saints Celtic Worship

Psalms & Readings for the 10th Sunday after Trinity

Psalms: 51: verses 1-13
78: verses 23-29

Readings: 2 Samuel chapter 11 verse 26 –
chapter 12 verse 13
Exodus 16: verses 2-4 and 9-15
Ephesians 4: verses 1-16
John 6: verses 24-35

Weekly Scripture

⁵ “And when you come before God, don’t turn that into a theatrical production either. All these people making a regular show out of their prayers, hoping for fifteen minutes of fame! Do you think God sits in a box seat?

⁶ “Here’s what I want you to do: Find a quiet, secluded place so you won’t be tempted to role-play before God. Just be there as simply and honestly as you can manage. The focus will shift from you to God, and you will begin to sense his grace.

Matthew 6 verses 5-6 (The Message Bible)

Prayers for the 10th Sunday after Trinity

We pray this week for the victims of the Southport attack. May we all find a quiet space to say a prayer for those injured to receive God’s healing love, for peace for those who have died and for strength for the families coping with this horrendous incident.

A children’s prayer from My Big Prayer Book by Maggie Barfield

Feeling scared

Dear God,
I didn’t like the pictures on television.
People were hurt and crying.
I’m scared.
Will it happen here?
Will it happen to me?

God says, ‘Do not be afraid. I will be with you to help you wherever you go.’

We cannot always protect children from bad news and negative images. But we can help them, by allowing them to talk about what they have seen and how they feel – and by not dismissing their worries.
